

SHOP
LOCAL

EXPLORE
JAMAICA AVENUE

WELCOME TO DOWNTOWN JAMAICA

You are working in a vibrant neighborhood full of stores, arts and cultural organizations, unique dining, and fun community events. Use this guide as your starter pack to explore all there is to offer outside of your workplace.

Get Your Bearings: Access our neighborhood shopping directory and sign up for our weekly downtown Jamaica e-newsletters at jamaica.nyc. Follow us on social media to receive daily updates, event notifications and more.

JAMAICA AVE

jamaica.nyc

Jamaica Center BID

@jamcenterbid

@JamCenterBID

Dine Downtown: Try a pupusa from one of downtown's many Salvadorian restaurants, visit the charmingly vintage Margherita Pizza, or peruse Jamaica Market, an all-season indoor cluster of homegrown microentrepreneurs offering everything from noodles to carrot cake to salads. This is just a taste of all there is to offer.

Scan here for full dining directory →

Shopping: Nearly 400 businesses line “the Ave” stretching from Sutphin Boulevard to the west to 169th Street to the east, including Burlington, H&M, Old Navy, Foot Locker, Snipes, Marshalls, Raymour & Flanigan, Make Me Over Beauty Bar, and Original Herbal Remedies.

Scan here for full shopping directory →

Coffee Break: Starbucks and Dunkin' offer espresso and brewed coffee treats.

Scan here for all coffee shops →

Explore: Downtown Jamaica is a cultural hub and home to Jamaica Center for Arts and Learning, with a first-floor free exhibition gallery and a variety of year-round classes; Jamaica Performing Arts Center; King Manor Museum (home of Founding Father and anti-slavery activist Rufus King); 11.5-acre Rufus King Park; and York College Performing Arts Center.

Scan here to learn more →

This brochure was prepared by the Jamaica Center Business Improvement District (a nonprofit organization dedicated to making downtown Jamaica a delightful place to live, work, shop and play!) with support from the Department of Small Business Services. Learn more at jamaica.nyc and please support local businesses!